In Flanders Fields

By: Lieutenant Colonel John McCrae

In Flanders Fields the poppies blow
 Between the crosses, row on row,
 That mark our place; and in the sky
 The larks, still bravely singing, fly
 Scarce heard amid the guns below.

We are the Dead. Short days ago
 We lived, felt dawn, saw sunset glow,
 Loved, and were loved, and now we lie
 In Flanders fields.

Take up our quarrel with the foe:
 To you from failing hands we throw
 The torch, be yours to hold it high.
 If ye break faith with us who die
 We shall not sleep, though poppies grow
 In Flanders fields.

Why the difference in American Vs. Canadian Thanksgiving?

While Canadians celebrate Thanksgiving on a Sunday in October, Americans celebrate it on a Thursday in November this year! While American Thanksgiving started in 1621 to celebrate the harvest at the Plymouth Colony in Massachusetts, Canadian Thanksgiving started in 1872 to celebrate the Prince of Wales, Albert Edward, thankfully recovering from an illness. Over the years, both Thanksgiving celebrations have changed to celebrating the harvest and what we're thankful for - incorporating both American and Canadian celebrations.

A note from our Resident Council President

A new month and Christmas is coming fast. Well here we go again with that power outage and this building was down for the count; this is totally a health and safety risk for Staff and Residents on both sides. Enough is enough, it has to be dealt with. I would strongly suggest that you speak to your families and get them to complain about this and demand that action is done now to correct this issue. May I point out that I have brought this up many times over past years.

On good note, our annual bazaar is coming up at the end of the month so let your family know. Also Remembrance day is coming up this month as well. Our next resident council meeting November, 21st 10.00 am

Bye for now, play safe.

-Paul, Resident Council President
