Proud to Be Canadian, EH!

Welcome to the Great White North
A country oft misunderstood
We do not live in snowy igloos
Or rustic cabins made of wood.

The winters here, yes, can get cold
But our summers get terribly hot
We may be the polite northern neighbours
But we know all the party spots.

I don't dress like a lumberjack
Or keep a beaver for a pet
And walking through Algonquin Park
A moose is not so gladly met.

I've met people from across this land
And one thing I often see
Is those who are the friendliest
Have hears aglow for this country.

My favorite part of Canada
"The true north strong and free"
Is what I've learned and where I've gone
In this land that's home to me.
